| Purpose of the Program | The Utah Student Loan Guarantee Program (USGLP) is a program administered by Utah Higher Education Assistance Authority (UHEAA), a subsidiary of the Utah State Board of Regents. USLGP is the local guarantor of federal student loans, and is maintained primarily to ensure adequate access to federal student loans for Utah students and out-of-state students attending Utah schools. | |
| Eligible Applicants | Students attending an approved post secondary educational institution may apply for financial aid, including student loans. What a student is eligible for is based on a federal methodology which takes into account the cost of attendance less other available resources. | |
| Restrictions on Use of Assistance | Financial aid, including student loans, must be used for qualified educational costs. | |
| Application Procedures | Students may apply for student loans through their institution's financial aid office. | |
| State Clearinghouse Coordination | N/A | |
| Application Deadline | On-going | |
| Range and Average of Financial Assistance | Guaranteed student loans are packaged with other available financial assistance. Total assistance may not exceed the costs of attendance at the applicant's school. In addition, there are loan-limits that vary depending upon a student's status, year in school, and in some cases, program of study. | |
| Source of Funds and Aid | Partial interest subsidies for borrowers, and program operating expenses are provided by federal appropriations. | |
