

Child Abuse Prevention Program/Crisis Nurseries

Division of Child and Family Services Department of Human Services 120 North 200 West Salt Lake City, Utah 84103		Contact: Reba Nissen Program Specialist (801) 538-4100
Purpose of the Program	Eleven Crisis Nurseries statewide assist in prevention of child abuse by allowing parents who feel that they might injure a child due to a crisis, to place the child at the center while the parents resolve the crisis. These centers are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
Eligible Applicants	Crisis nurseries are sole source providers, eliminating the application process for these funds.
Restrictions on Use of Assistance	The caretaker must be in crisis, and children placed at the nursery are between the ages of birth to 10 years.
